Classification of Backward Classes for purposes of reservation of appointments and posts under Article 16 (4) of the Constitution

CIRCULAR

No. DPAR 21 SBC 79, BANGALORE, DATED 29TH MAY 1979.

Consequent on the decision of the High Court of Karnataka in Writ Petition No 4371/77 and other connected cases in respect of the classification of certain communities/castes as Backward Classes, Government Order No DPAR 1 SBC 77, dated 4th March 1977 regarding reservation of vacancies in services for Backward Classes of citizens has been amended in Government Order No. DPAR 21 SBC 79, dated 16th May 1979.

2. Since inclusion of certain communities in the Government Order dated 4th March 1977 has been held to be not correct by the High Court of Karnataka, it is necessary that the orders issued in the Government Order dated 16th May 1979 are implemented not only in respect of selections to be made hereafter but also in respect of selections pending finalisation by various selection authorities. Government are therefore pleased to direct that the following instructions be followed in respect of selections which have already been completed or which are yet to be completed.

(i) In all cases where selections are not yet finalised, such selections have to be made in accordance with the orders issued in Government Order dated 16th May 1979.
(ii) In all cases where the selections are finalised but the lists of selected candidates are not yet announced, the respective selection authorities should "re-do" the list in accordance with the revised orders and then announce the names
(iii) In cases where the selections have been made and lists are also announced, but no appointment of any of the candidates has been made the section authorities should re-do the list in accordance with the revised orders.
(iv) If, however, the number of candidates called for interview, taking into account the category to which they belong, falls short of the number required to be called for interview additional number of candidates to make up the short-fall may be called for interview and considered for selection along with those already interviewed. There is no need to call for interview those already interviewed for this purpose.
(v) If a list of selected candidates is partly operated and appointment orders have been issued and in respect of remaining portion of the list, appointment orders are yet to be issued such portion of the list which has not yet been operated shall be continued to be operated for purposes of appointments to that category of posts as if the Government Order dated 4th March 1977 is not amended by this Government Order till that list is exhausted.

3. In giving effect to the revised orders issued in Government Order dated 16th May 1979 in dealing with all cases where applications have been called already, selection of candidates may be made by considering those that have applied in response to such notifications already issued and no fresh applications need be called now.
